Athlete Plows Into Train In 3 A.M. Highway Crash

NATIONAL SQUASH CHAMPION SUFFERS SERIOUS INJURIES

Seriously injured at 3:10 a.m. today when his car crashed head-on into the side of a Santa Fe train switching on the spur line crossing Foothill boulevard east of town, John Keith, 31, 7740 Hollywood boulevard, national squash champion, of the Hollywood Athletic club, and member of the Coast Guard Reserve, is a patient at a local hospital, where he was rushed following the accident, it is reported by Upland police.

Enroute to Redlands and driving alone, Keith suffered a possible pelvic fracture, a fractured leg, and numerous cuts and abrasions about the head and face, it is reported. Keith's car was almost totally demolished, with the front end being badly crushed and mangled, while he, himself, was so wedged between the dash, steering wheel and a heavy load in the rear seat that it required the efforts of four men to extricate him, police said.

WRECKS BOX CAR

Commenting on the accident, Chief of Police Eugene L. Mueller declared that the physical evidence of the wrecked car and the damage to the train, indicated that Keith must have been traveling at a highly excessive rate of speed. The impact was so terrific that the wheels of a refrigerator car were broken, and train crews have been engaged the remainder of today replacing the wheels and making repairs, it is reported by L. A. Fox, Santa Fe agent.

New City Councilman

RAY R. SHERWOOD

Upland citrus grower and civic leader, who is a new Upland city councilman, being appointed to the official body last night to succeed the late Godfrey Andreas.

OLD JAIL LOANED, DIMOUT LAW O.K.

Seeking use of Upland's city jail cell block equipment, a letter was received by the city council at its meeting last night from the county of San Bernardino, stating that the county was in serious need of additional jail facilities, due to great population increase in the desert area as the result of military work and war production.

The county petitioned the council for authority to remove the old jail equipment for its use, asserting its interest in the equipment as the result of providing funds for the erection of the old jail in 1906. It was held by the council, however, that the city had replaced the original equipment which was installed before the city's incorporation, and that, therefore, the county had no interest in it.

However, the council, recognizing the county's need, voted a motion to lend the jail equipment to the county for the duration of the emergency, in accordance with conditions proposed for its removal by the county.

Four bids for a new police car were presented to the council by City Manager R. G. Manley. The council voted to postpone any action toward securing a new car at this time, unless it could se-

TIRE PILE HERE RAPIDLY MOUNTS

With Monday, Nov. 9, the last day for persons to turn over to the government their excess tires, the local office of the Railway Express agency is today doing a rushing business.

More than 500 tires had been turned in by yesterday, with today's activities far exceeding expectations. Harry Wright, agent for the Pacific Electric as well as for the express agency, said he "understood" that all tires over five per car had to be turned in by Monday night.

Mr. Wright and his assistant, John Tate, record each tire, the make, size and weight. Each owner of the tires is given a receipt and in due time Uncle Sam will send these people either checks or defense stamps as payment.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Cook of 694 East Seventh street, gave a birthday dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. Cook's sister-in-law, Mrs. Calvin Adams. Guests present were, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Adams and daughter, Betty Ann, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Adams' sister, Mrs. Minnie Bausman from Catalina.

Smudge If Must, But Keep Flame At Very Minimum

Growers will not lose any crops because of dimout regulations is the encouraging news relayed today to this citrus communinty by Chief of Police Eugene L. Mueller.

If a sudden dip in the thermometer makes the use of smudge pots necessary, orchardists are to proceed with smudging in order to save the crops, is the word received by Chief Mueller.

However, he cautions, smudge pots must be adjusted so that no more than the minimum amount of flame shall be visible.

Although army authorities as yet have not given a definite, final ruling on how smudging will be governed, Chief Mueller said that they recognized that crops must be saved in the meantime and recommend the above procedure.

RAY R. SHERWOOD NAMED TO SUCCEED GODFREY ANDREAS

Ray R. Sherwood, well-known citrus grower and active worker in local agricultural circles, was named last night by the city council to fill the vacancy created in the council by the recent passing of Godfrey Andreas.

Appointment of Mr. Sherwood to fill out the unexpired term of the late Councilman Andreas was confirmed by unanimous voice vote of the councilman. Mr. Sherwood's appointment was made effective as of last night.

Well and favorably known for his activities in behalf of the interests of agriculture, Councilman Sherwood brings to the council special abilities to serve the best interests of the community. He has signified his acceptance of the appointment, and will sit with the council at its next meeting.

Mr. Sherwood lives with his family on San Antonio avenue at Seventeenth street. They have resided in Upland 10 years, and have been in this district since 1913. During the first World war Mr. Sherwood was an automobile dealer in Ontario. Since that time he had been closely identified with business, agricultural and civic interests in the community.

At present he is serving the "Triple A" as the local committeeman, as well as assisting in the registration of trucks in accordance with the war-time conservation program.

Police Detain Man Without Draft Card For Investigation

Arrested late yesterday along Foothill boulevard while enroute hitch-hiking, Jose Romero, 32, giving his home address as Dixon, New Mexico, was detained by Upland police for investigation of his selective service status.

Unable to produce a selective service registration card, the man is being held pending a checkup. He told police that he had been released just recently from the Los Angeles county jail and that he had registered. However, his lack of the required registration card caused police to hold him for a complete investigation.

Red Cross Sewing Rooms Will Close On Armistice Day

Upland Red Cross headquarters, 304 North Euclid avenue, will be closed on Armistice day, it was announced today by Mrs. Mary Eckerman, chairman of the Upland Red Cross chapter.

Hartzogs Hear Of Son's Trip To Canada City

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hartzog recently received a card from their son, Sgt. Elwood Hartzog, who is connected with the army quartermaster corps, and which was mailed from Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, while Sgt. Hartzog was there on official business for the army.

In order to reassure his parents that he was not enroute overseas, he subsequently wrote them from Seattle upon his return there where he is stationed.

Drunk Driver Is Fined $100

John B. Boone, Jr., 207 North Main street, Baldwin Park, was arrested by Upland police on East Foothill boulevard at 3 a.m. yesterday and lodged in jail on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Appearing before Judge Mildred R. Puckett later in the day, Boone was fined $100, upon payment of which he was released.

Night Rests Closer Upon City as Army Insists 'No Kibitzing' With Dimout Rule

Upland electrolier lights are fast approaching the half-moon stage, as downtown visitors have perceived during the past few evenings.

Ninth street from Euclid to Second avenue, and Second avenue from Foothill boulevard to C Street, by Tuesday evening were at half-moon, with light globes having been given blackout coats of paint half-way down their sides by city workmen. Resulting illumination beheld by Uplanders was a glow along the street, with darkness coming down to the very tops of the light standards.

By Wednesday evening, the triple-globed chandeliers on Second avenue from C Street to the Santa Fe station were two-thirds darked to half-moon. Last night Uplanders had their first view of full- wartime dimout, with the roof of night resting squarely upon the pillars of the city's light pedestals.

Upland is pretty well in compliance with dimout requirements recently ordered by the Western Defense Command, Fourth Army, it was said by Howard A. Medley, Southern California Edison company lighting consultant, who visited Upland Wednesday.

Nevertheless, checkup on lights is continually maintained by Upland police, auxiliary police and air raid wardens, it is said by Chief of Police Eugene L. Mueller, who reported the first week of dimout to be about 85 per cent effective here.

ASK POLICE

Ever ready to assist residents with their illumination problems arising from lighting restrictions, the police department is answering numerous questions of townspeople and is always ready to make inspections and recommend remedies. Some few violations have occurred in Upland, but most of them, Chief Mueller pointed out, have resulted from ignorance of dimout regulations.

Many questions coming in to the police department are a repetition of questions which already have been answered either in folders which have been presented to all homes by air raid wardens or in published requirements of the dimout order, it is said by police officers on duty at the station desk. However, for the sake of emphasis and information a number of these are repeated.

REQUIREMENTS CLEAR

Skylights and ventilators must be blacked out so no light or glow is emitted to the sky.

Floodlights on buildings or in yards must be kept out unless properly shaded as specified by the military.

Many people have called to ask about outdoor barbecues or wiener bakes. As outdoor fires of any nature are prohibited between sunset and sunrise, such events are under ban so far as fire is concerned.

People are especially cautioned about porch lights. All such illumination must be shaded so as to cast no light upward nor outward from the light element.

Grove irrigators have asked about the lanterns they use in their work at night. Dimout ap-

LEMON GROWERS DISCUSS PROBLEMS

Citrus problems in general were discussed and the need for storing orchard heater oil was stressed at the annual meeting of the Upland Lemon Growers association yesterday.

Floyd D. Young, U. S. weather bureau official, declared that in a prolonged cold period, the problem of obtaining heater oil might be acute. He urged the maximum storage of oil now due to transportation problems.

A large number of members of the association met in the auditorium of the Elementary school building to hear reports, to discuss problems and to hear the speakers. Gordon Nichols, president, presided. All officers and directors were reelected as follows: Paul R. Daggs, John D. Howe, Warren H. Wass and J. B. Browning.

Mr. Nicholson was reelected president at the organization meeting of the directors held this morning, Mr. Wass was reelected vice president and Don Tyler, manager. Jarvis J. Leman was reelected secretary.

Manager Don Tyler reported that approximately 1,475 carloads of lemons will have been handled when the current season is completed and that the outlook is that next year's production will be about the same as this year. The average gross returns for a field box was given as 85 cents.

Other speakers besides Mr. Young were Harry B. Harlow, manager of the Ontario-Cucamonga Fruit Exchange and H. H. Nixson of the California Fruit Exchange field department. These men discussed marketing, grading and care of the fruit.

Many members in attendance at the meeting expressed wholehearted cooperation with the mangement in seeking to meet the many war-time problems.

The annual meeting attracted a large number of the association members and many of them took part in the discussions.

FIND TOTS LOST OVER TWO HOURS

The desire of Barbara and Luther Thompson, two and three years old, respectively, to see the world yesterday afternoon resulted in a brief alarm and search for them when their mother, Mrs. James Thompson, 1637 West Ninth street, reported to Upland police shortly before 5 p.m. that the tots had been missing for two hours.

However, a little after five, Luther arrived home, being brought in by a motorist who had picked him up far afield. He was able upon questioning to lead his parents to his little sister, and she was found at 5:16 p.m. on the Pacific Electric tracks west of Mountain avenue.

FAIL TO WIN $15

Mr. and Mrs. Will Miller, West Seventh street near Mountain avenue, had an opportunity to win $15 from The Upland News food advertising fund last night. They didn't qualify for the award, however, because they didn't have sales slips from the food stores advertising on Tuesday in The News.

COUNCIL POSTPONES ACTION ON MATTER OF WAGE INCREASE

Presented to Upland city council at its meeting last night, the pay increase sought by Upland city employes was deferred for action until the next meeting of the council on November 19.

However, the council acted to constitute its membership a committee to consider the matter more fully before the next regular meeting, and to meet with representatives of the city departments to discuss the proposals made by the city employes.

URGES ACTION

Mayor Eugene G. Nisbet was emphatic in insisting that the matter not be delayed any more than absolutely necessary to ascertain necessary information. He declared that he would like to see the council take a definite interest in the welfare of the city's employes.

Immediate action could not be taken in the matter, for it was pointed out that the government acted recently to freeze wages, and that the city might not be able to do anything about it. The council indicated that if the government will allow the city to raise the wages in question, the matter might be considered, but that it could not take the action without government approval.

SEEK OPINION

While the council discusses the matter with employes, Attorney E. E. Gray was directed to seek a decision from the War Labor Board, which board has supervision of all salaries up to $5,000 per year, including state and municipal employes. Any action taken by the council, it was agreed, would have to be taken subject to the approval of the WLB.

Attention also was called to the fact that the city council had raised the wages of most city employes approximately 15 per cent on June 18 last, and that most living costs were frozen as of March 1.

The council was definite that no action would be taken until it was informed of the attitude of the War Labor Board. The council will meet Monday evening as a committee to discuss the matter, after which it will hold another meeting with city employes for further consideration.

Full consideration is to be given all angles and a thorough study is to be made of all circumstances pertaining to the request of the employes.

PRICE ELECTED IN ASSEMBLY CONTEST

R. Fred Price, prominent resident of the Chaffey district for many years, will represent this community in the state legislature beginning January as the result of his victory in the ballot contest Tuesday.

Eugene G. Nisbet, Democratic candidate for the place vacated by the late Godfrey A. Andreas, pulled a strong vote but not enough to offset the totals accumulated by the Republican.

These two men were candidates for assemblyman.

Total unofficial vote in the seventy-second assembly district follows:

Price	11,067
Nisbet	9,755

Mr. Price was the popular candidate in almost every part of the district. He received the majority of votes in Ontario as well as Upland and in many of the precincts in San Bernardino.

Formerly active in retail business, Mr. Price is now associated with the Richardson mortuary. He has been prominent in civic affairs in the district and his wide acquaintance and his genial personality were factors in his successful campaign.

APPLICATION FORMS ARE AVAILABLE AT SERVICE STATIONS

To be ready to register for gasoline rationing next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 12, 13 and 14, motorists must secure their application blanks during the next few days, it is announced by H. M. Shattuck, chairman of the West End War Price and Rationing Board.

Application forms may be secured in Upland from the chamber of commerce, either of the local banks or from any service station or garage. In order to save motorists' tires, Upland chamber of commerce has secured application blanks from the rationing board, and will keep all local points of distribution supplied.

NEED CREDENTIALS

When going to the schools to register, motorists should take with them in addition to the application forms, the white slips to their cars, the number of the Federal tax stamp, the serial numbers of their tires and receipts for any extra tires which they have disposed of to the government through the Railway Express company.

Car owners possessing more than five tires are urged by rationing officials to dispose of the excess tires at once, since registrars cannot issue a mileage ration book to any applicant who lists more than five tires.

One Cent Sale in New Record as Many People Go To Store

People recognize that a sale in these days is really a sale.

And Mac, the Medicine Man, officially known as P. H. McQuillen, realizes today that people are eager to buy.

On the first day of the famous "one-cent sale," many Rexall items were sold out even though Mr. McQuillen had obtained — for these times — an unusually large amount of merchandise.

Additional merchandise, however, was put on sale and the store at the "crossroads in the village" is setting new records in its annual November bargain festival.

Many items ordered from the factory by Mr. McQuillen did not arrive due to the emergency and the local druggist expressed deep appreciation for the attitude of the general public in recognizing the difficulties of obtaining merchandise.

Gathering for the regular monthly meetings, each of the four circles of the Methodist Women's Society for Christian Service held afternoon sessions on Thursday.

The Orange Drive circle met at the home of the president, Mrs. D. C. Sutton, 1495 North Mountain avenue. The serving of a 1 o'clock dessert course preceded the business session at which Mrs. Sutton presided. The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. Frank C. Buffington. Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Hughes were among the guests joining the members in the meeting. Mrs. Charles Dinger served as co-hostess with Mrs. Sutton.

Members of the Willing Workers circle met at the home of Mrs. Florence Dundas, 609 West Arrow highway. Mrs. H. A. Cooley, president, conducted the business session and the remainder of the time was devoted to Red Cross work. Mrs. Glenn H. Wright assisted Mrs. Dundas in serving refreshments.

Meeting of the Eastside circle was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Bingle in Ontario, with Mrs. J. T. Salisbury, sister of Mrs. Bingle, serving as co-hostess. Mrs. Harold Rowe, president, conducted the business session and Mrs. Thos. H. Settle led the devotional service. Mrs. Rowe appointed Mrs. Henry Anderson, Mrs. Ralph H. Marr and Mrs. A. H. Stull to serve as the nominating committee in preparing for the annual election to be held next month.

SPEAKERS VIE IN ANNUAL CONTEST

"Eyes Aloft," the title of Miss Virginia Gardner's speech in the annual Podrasnik oratorical, sets the mood for the event which is principal public speaking event of the year at Chaffey union high school and junior college. The contest will take place next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Civic auditorium at an assembly to which the public is invited.

Three other speakers in the finals include Miss Joann Acker and John Rumsey, high school students, and William Barton, college student. Rumsey's topic is "Lest We Forget," and that of Miss Acker is "War vs. Youth."

The contest was organized in 1919 by Alois Podrasnik, a civil war veteran interested in developing a patriotic oratorical. Contestants were coached for many years by the late Miss Lois Le Baron Avery, head of the Chaffey English department.

Judges at this concert will be the Reverend Charles L. Knight, Donald Jacobs, and Ernest Payne.

Review of Books At Upland Library

BY MRS. GEO. W. WEST
Assistant Librarian

"The Raft", by Robert Trumbull.

As hour by hour, the teletypes click out the news, events are taking place which tax the credulity of those who are carrying on along the home front. If this is a people's war, then the experiences of people—great and small—will make the hero tales for the morrow, and none can surpass the gruelling experiences of three men on an eight by four foot rubber raft. They were with the Facific fleet on an observation maneuver early in 1942. For military reasons, the name of the ship and the place of rescue are withheld, but the story of the 34-day voyage of Harold Dixon, chief petty officer; Tony Pastula, bomber, and Gene Aldrich, gunner, will forever be a testament of personal morale and more than that—proof of the military value of the democratic ideal.

"I Escaped from Hong Kong", by Jan Henrik Marsman.

When Jan Hendrik Marsman, Dutch-born American citizen, found himself in Hong Kong at the outset of hostilities with the Japanese, he learned through bitter experience what happens to a city of a million and a half people, whose numbers were swollen by three-quarters of a million refugees, when an enemy strikes—and such an enemy! What happens to captured soldiers—to civilians—men, women, babies—to doctors, nurses—makes a fearsome recital. It is the story of riot, panic, bravery, heroism, futile efforts, and magnificent personal achievement". Without giving any information that would work hardship—or worse—on friends who were left, Mr. Marsman tells a thrilling story.

A derivative of pectin now being made from orange peel at Ontario has been developed as a substitute for imported agar from Japan.

YOUTH EDUCATION; BIBLE DISCUSSED

Two interesting addresses, one concerning proposed steps in furthering Christian education for youth and the other dealing with the history and literature of the Bible, featured the all-day meeting of the Presbyterian Women's association held Thursday in the Presbyterian church.

The meeting was opened at 11 a.m. by Mrs. Merrill H. Moremen, president, and after a routine business session Mrs. Edith S. Troeller was presented as the program speaker.

As president of the Council of church women of the Chaffey district, Mrs. Troeller explained that one of the principal objectives of the Council is to promote the education of youth in true religion, in citizenship and in Americanism.

She told of plans to make this district the testing grounds in California for the proposed "released hour" method of giving children religious instruction.

Because, by law of the land, religious instruction cannot be given in public schools, it is proposed, Mrs. Troeller explained, to secure a law providing for at least one hour each week in which school children will be released to attend some group meeting to be held near the school for the purpose of giving religious instruction.

This plan has been found to operate successfully in Hawaii, Mrs. Troeller said. In one school of approximately 1,100 students from 600 to 800 attended the "released hour" meetings weekly.

It is now, in this and in other ways, Mrs. Troeller emphasized, that the church must prepare to take a leading part in reorganizing and coordinating the world after the war.

At the noon hour luncheon was served by Mrs. R. C. Norton's group, with Mrs. A. C. Beattie serving as chairman. Mrs. Norton announced her group will hold an apron and food sale on Nov. 14 in the former Huxtable drug store building.

The afternoon session was opened with devotional service conducted by Mrs. R. E. Van Ness.

Holding the close attention of his audience, the Rev. R. Merrill Jensen, pastor of the Ontario First Baptist church, spoke on Romance of the Bible.

He told how, seemingly by chance, the first authentic manuscripts of Biblical writings were found as they were about to be burned and are now kept by the British museum.

Telling familiar stories in the Bible in modern language, the speaker pointed out the readability of its literature, the beauty of its romance and its inestimable value as a spiritual guide in religious life.

Fire Chief Still Is Hoping to Try Out New Fire Car

It is a conspiracy, Fire Chief J. W. Voth declares, for even with a fire call at 1:05 p. m. today, he has not yet gotten a chance to try out the new fire truck on real flames.

Today's was the second fire alarm since the new truck was delivered on Tuesday, and just one time when he would be wanting a fire to work on, the chief misses fire every time. The first fire, Tuesday evening, gave no opportunity; it was just a scorched wall.

Today, he did not even get to take the new truck to the fire, as he was at lunch at the time. So one of the big trucks was taken out to put out a small grass fire just east of San Antonio Community hospital, which spread over about 20 square feet. Cause undetermined.

Chief Voth is still waiting for a chance to try out the new truck.

RUSH ORDER! COOKED BY GAS!

THE GREATEST industrial nation in the world is staking its destiny on production for war – all of it marked "RUSH"!

Southern California is doing its share with ever-increasing speed and urgency. It is one of the three leading war production areas in the United States.

And natural gas is playing a vital role in this all-out production of planes, ships, tanks, guns and bombs . . . of steel, magnesium, synthetic rubber . . . The task of meeting the demand for natural gas – so tremendously expanded by war plants and new housing – is without precedent in history.

Southern California is fortunate in having an abundant reserve supply of natural gas. But the problem this winter is to deliver the tremendous volume of gas needed in wartime . . . through a network of pipelines which was designed for peacetime. Moreover this network cannot be expanded – for it would take hundreds of tons of steel more vitally needed on other fronts.

Under these wartime conditions certain situations, such as extremes of weather, could create temporary emergencies when this peacetime system might be unequal to the task. If an emergency occurs, you may be asked to use less gas for heating your house for as long as may be necessary – so that important war production can go on without interruption.

From now on, the No. 1 task of natural gas – is to speed war production!

GAS IS VITAL TO WAR PRODUCTION . . . USE IT WISELY

HOUSING AUTHORITY PETITIONS ACTION

Concurring with action taken by the recent convention of Western States Housing Authorities to expedite relief in the critical war housing situation existing in the western states, the board of commissioners of Upland Housing Authority at its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, adopted a resolution passed by the convention.

The resolution calls for changes in policy to effect a speedup in housing procedure and to eliminate ineffective and cumbersome methods which have been responsible for unsatisfactory results. It calls for immediate speedup of the participation of local authorities in establishing need; for adequate ratings to be given at time of allocation of project; for decentralization of WPB functions; and that duly established housing authorities be designated as local agents for army, navy and maritime civilian housing construction.

Copies of the resolution adopted by the local authority are being forwarded to Senator Sheridan Downey and Congressman Harry R. Sheppard. The meeting also considered and approved payment of regular bills.

Annual Meeting of Agricultural Group To Be Held Nov. 12

Annual meeting of the Agricultural Conservation Council for the communities of Upland, Ontario, Cucamonga and Alta Loma will be held next Thursday, Nov. 12, in the Upland junior high school auditorium, according to a schedule announced by Marjorie M. Hambly, county secretary.

Local announcement of the meeting was made by Ray R. Sherwood.

During the meeting five local farmers will be elected to serve in 1943, and their duties will include the establishing of war crop goals for each farm in the county.

In addition to a discussion of the 1943 war program, George E. Woodhams will discuss the duties of the county agricultural war board. All farmers will be particularly interested in this discussion because of extended rationing of machinery, agricultural construction permits, farm labor difficulties and priority questions confronting them.

New Fire Truck Gets First Run But No Workout

An overheated flue from an oil burner in the Lonnie Blanton home at 1375 West Eighth street, about 7 p. m. Tuesday, provided opportunity for an initiation run for Upland's new fire truck on its first day of service.

Responding to the call with the new truck, Chief J. W. Voth found, however, that there was little opportunity upon arrival at the scene to try out the truck's equipment. Although developing much smoke, the "fire" resulted in no more serious damage than a scorched wall, it is reported.

Everyone interested in Christian fellowship and soul prosperity is invited to enjoy these remaining services in this special evangelistic campaign, it is stated by the pastor, the Rev. C. R. Heisey.

With tickets selling at $5, nearly 300 persons will crowd to capacity Fellowship hall in the new Methodist church building tonight for a "victory" banquet, heralding the dedication of the new church edifice Sunday. Dr. Irvin A. Engle is pastor of the church.

With the heads of 160 Upland famimlies out of work, some of them unemployed for a year; and with no immediate prospect for opening up of projects, the city today faces a serious problem, it is indicated in reports from welfare workers and civic leaders.

Subscribing five $100 scholarships for the David and Margaret home within 25 minutes, was the record made Thursday by those attending the meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church. Mrs. Irvin A. Engle, president of the society, conducted the meeting.

ACT PROMPTLY TO REGISTER TRUCKS

Concern over registration of commercial trucks and vehicles is revealed by calls to Upland chamber of commerce from local truck owners who as yet have not received the required registration questionnaires.

According to best information available at the West End rationing board, questionnaires for the registration of commercial vehicles are not available locally, and the owners should receive them through the mail from the Office of Defense Transportation in Detroit.

Any local commercial truck owners who have not received their questionnaires are advised by Howard Pierce, secretary of the chamber of commerce, to write by air mail to the Office of Defense Transportation, Central Mailing Office, P. O. Box 2259, Detroit, Michigan. In writing to that office, truck owners should give the information containend on the white registration slips of their vehicles, including particularly the license plate number and type of truck.

To register farm or ranch trucks, owners may secure registration blanks at the local office of the United States Soil Conservation Service, located in the postoffice building, 123 West A street, Ontario. Information concerning registration of farm vehicles may be secured at that office or from Ray R. Sherwood or A. J. Leavitt.

All farm or commercial trucks must be registered with the ODT in order to secure gasoline rationing books.

Meeting of Upland P.-T. A. Scheduled Wednesday, Nov. 18

Because of the conflict with Armistice day, the regular meeting of the Upland Parent-Teacher association has been postponed from Wednesday, Nov. 11, to Wednesday, Nov. 18, it was announced today by Mrs. D. F. Jones, president of the association.

The postponed meeting will be an afternoon session and the program will include a play presented by Upland junior high school students and an address on nutrition.

Attention Directed To Nutrition Class Beginning Tuesday

Emphasizing the need for a general knowledge of nutrition and of canteen operation on the part of those who prepare food, the Red Cross committee in charge of the new nutrition class again is urging a large attendance next Tuesday morning when the new course will be started.

Mrs. Frances Brewer of Pomona, home service director for the Southern Counties Gas Co., will instruct the class, with sessions being held in the Upland Woman's club house each Tuesday morning from 9:30 to 11:30.

In addition to giving information concerning the nutritive value of foods, how best to prepare them, etc., and giving instruction concerning canteen work in time of emergency, Mrs. Brewer also will give valuable suggestions concerning school lunches.

While the principal object of the Red Cross nutrition and canteen course is to prepare women to care for large numbers of refugees in time of war disaster or other emergency, still the information Mrs. Brewer gives also is of much value to housewives.

The course is free, and all women who can attend are urged to be present at 9:30 o'clock next Tuesday morning.

PHONE SERVICE IN WAR IS DISCUSSED

TO HONOR SOLDIERS

It is the plan of the Upland Lions club to have as guests at its weekly meetings local men in the armed forces who are home on furloughs. As a courtesy to the soldiers and in recognition of their service to the country, the club members will deem it an honor to fete the local men in uniform. Relatives of the soldiers may cooperate in this plan by advising Secretary Glenn M. Atwood, who can officially extend a personal invitation to the men in uniform who have returned for a visit.

BY ERNEST R. CAMFIELD

J. W. Johnson, general manager of the Ontario-Upland Telephone exchange, addressed the Lions club at its meeting Thursday, discussing the workings of his company and explaining how such a concern can adapt its facilities in helping to win the war. Fred Jacobs, chairman of the day, presented the speaker as "a representative of American opportunity", who started with his company as a linesman 24 years ago and worked to the position as general manager.

Mr. Johnson outlined the history of the telephone from its invention by Alexander G. Bell when people thought of it as a queer novelty, to its present use as an instrument essential to a complex civilization and vital in the war effort.

Dispelling the rumor that no more telephones are being installed in private homes, the speaker pointed out the fact that the local exchange has installed a net total of 306 telephones in residences since last April. "The telephone company is as anxious as ever to serve the community, but naturally first call must be given to the army, navy and governmental agencies," continued Mr. Johnson. "If people will refrain from calling from 8 to 12 a. m. and from 7 to 9 p. m., they can help in the war effort."

"Telephone calls are given priority ratings," Mr. Johnson stated, "depending on their importance. Army calls come first, followed by calls of the government, warnings of the approach of enemies, and calls relating to disasters."

Since additional equipment cannot be bought by his company, Mr. Johnson warned that private lines will probably be a thing of the past soon. "Those who have been asked to share their private lines with new subscribers have done so willingly," the speaker said.

In keeping with the club's policy of having as guests local service men who are home on furloughs, visitors were Lt. Colonel Theodore C. Combs, Andrew List and Phillip Born.

Mrs. Palmer Johnson of Great Falls, Mont., was a guest this week of Mrs. Vernon Paine, 215 West Twentieth street. Mrs. Paine and her guest were girlhood chums at Leroy, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dean of South Sultana avenue were guests Sunday of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Dean and son, Jimmie, of Venice. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Paul of Montebello and Mr. and Mrs. Jermo of Oak Grove also were present.

Mrs. Stanley Owens (Burnett Malaise) and small daughter Renee, have moved to Upland from their home at Compton and will make their home with Mrs. Owens' mother, Mrs. Eva Malaise of 406 East Seventh street, during the winter. Mr. Owens is now in the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Blair and son, Richard, have arrived from their home in Pulaski, Iowa, and are visiting Mrs. Blair's mother and sister, Mrs. D. C. Sutton and Miss Josephine Sutton at their home, 1495 North Mountain avenue. The visitors expect to spend the winter in this area, wherever they can find suitable living quarters. This is Mr. Blair's first trip to Southern California.

More than 3,000,000 comfort and recreational articles were made for the men in our armed forces during the past year by members of the American Junior Red Cross. These articles range all the way from menu covers and joke books to afghans, ping-pong tables, and furniture for canteens and recreation rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck, 561 Columbia street, Pomona, are the parents of a daughter, the baby's birth occurring at 5 a. m. Wednesday, November 4, at Green Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Teney Salado, 333 West Second street, San Dimas, welcomed the birth of a daughter on Wednesday morning, November 4, at Green Memorial hospital.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Carr, 320 South Vine street, Ontario, the baby's arrival occurring at 10:30 p. m. Wednesday, November 4, at Green Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Benton, 315 East J street, Ontario, welcomed the arrival of a baby daughter at 1:10 a.m. today, Friday, November 6, the birth occurring at San Antonio Community hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Lytle, 774 East Sixth street, Pomona, are the proud parents of a son, the baby being born early Thursday morning, November 5, at Green Memorial hospital.

McFadden's 5-10-25c store is the place to buy Christmas presents now—and get delivery on them later. Use our lay-away plan. Many thrifty shoppers are doing that.

Phillip Born, who was called from Fort Sumner, N. M., by the death of his father, W. C. Born, remained over this week to spend his furlough with his wife and his mother. He plans to leave this week-end for Fort Sumner, where he is attending the U. S. Army Air Corps gliders training school.

Mrs. Alvin Finn, 472 East Arrow highway, is resting as well as may be expected today following an emergency appendectomy performed Wednesday evening at Green Memorial hospital. Mrs. Finn's condition is said to be quite satisfactory and her early recovery is expected.

J. Harvey Siegrist, who has held a responsible position with the Henry J. Kaiser Co. at Fontana for several months, resigned there to accept a position with the General Electric Co. in Ontario. He is in charge of procurement and expediting in his new work.

Sergeant Andrew List is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. List in College Heights during a brief furlough. He has been selected as a candidate to train as an officer and on leaving here he will go to Aberdeen, Maryland. He has been at Camp Bowie, Texas in the ordnance division. His brother, Philip List, is with the army over seas.

I.O.O.F. Rebekah Members Urged To Attend Unit Meet

An unusually important meeting for members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges will be held in the San Bernardino I. O. O. F. hall Saturday, 8 p. m. according to District Deputy Grand Master Ira Francisco, who is urging a large attendance by the local members of all branches of the order.

Among the speakers will be Eldred Charles, past grand master and grand chaplain of the sovereign grand lodge, and Mrs. Anna Catlett, president of the Rebekah Assembly of California. A dance at 10 p. m. will be included in the program.

The gathering will be in the nature of a regional meeting for all the lodges in five districts, extending from Baldwin Park to Riverside, according to Clinton Mayberry and Harold Anderson, who are assisting in arranging for a large delegation from here. Harry Dahlem of South Gate, formerly of Alta Loma, is the associate director for this area.

The local lodge officials suggested that those going from here meet at the I. O. O. F. hall at about 7:15 p. m.

Tires Should Not Roll Except On the High Road to Victory

While it sounds a little gentler and a little less mandatory to say "should not roll", as the watchword of the ride sharers puts it, the government's gasoline rationing program, which is to become effective within the next two weeks, is less equivocal in declaring that cars "shall" not roll except on the road to victory.

STRETCH GAS GALLONS

In an effort to aid motorists to stretch their lean gallons of gasoline into as many miles as possible, the West End committee of the Office of Defense Transportation is swinging into action locally under the direction of R. G. Manley, Upland defense transportation coordinator, and sponsored by Upland chamber of commerce. Roy D. Newton, Ontario, is chairman of the committee.

Now available at the chamber of commerce office are "Group Riders' Registration Cards". Through the filling out of these cards and the filing of them at the chamber of commerce, it is intended to assist in meeting the transportation needs of local residents.

All persons who wish to double up in their riding may secure registration cards at the chamber of commerce, fill them out and file them there for future reference.

SHARE AND SAVE

Recognizing the difficulty the individual might have in locating a ride or riders in his immediate or neighboring vicinity, the chamber of commerce offers this excellent opportunity for ride sharers to get together. Through the registration service, riders may band together into groups to rotate the use of cars or share expenses, thus not only conserving vital rubber, but also saving precious gasoline for additional necessities.

SPEAKERS SPREAD WORD

Steps now being taken to acquaint the public with the "Group Riders" registration service are being directed to service clubs, church organizations and social groups, Mr. Manley said. Members of the "Toastmasters Club" are carrying the "share the ride" plan to these organizations in brief talks.

Ride sharing already is being practiced by service club members going to noon luncheons, and church groups are making plans to utilize it in forming groups to attend church services and meetings, Mr. Manley affirmed.

Share the rides to work to church, to club meetings, to social gatherings, to school, to shop, and to entertainments. Register at the chamber of commerce and find either a ride or a rider.

During the last school year members of the American Junior Red Cross earned more than 260,000 first aid certificates, as well as thousands of Red Cross Home Nursing, life saving and water safety, and nutrition certificates.

ALTA LOMA PTA TO HEAR SPEAKER

A meeting of more than ordinary interest is scheduled to be held next Tuesday afternoon in the Alta Loma school house by the Parent-Teacher association, with juvenile delinquency and welfare work being considered.

The meeting will be opened at 2:30 by Mrs. Phillip Schmutz, the association president, who will conduct the business session.

The speaker will be Miss Belle Larimore of San Bernardino, a deputy sheriff in charge of juvenile delinquency in San Bernardino county. She will discuss juvenile delinquency, its causes and prevention, and parental responsibility.

The program also will include a play written and produced by the seventh grade pupils.

The parents and teachers will hold a discussion of necessary welfare work.

For the concluding social hour Mrs. Brandt, seventh grade room mother, and her committee, will be hostesses.

JR. HIGH ELEVEN DEFEATS CHAFFEY

The Upland junior high school's football schedule opened this week with the local squad defeating the Chaffey frosh 7 to 2 on the Chaffey athletic field. Upland took the lead early in the second quarter on a touchdown scored by Simon Hoyos from the 12-yard line. Bob Brown, left half, converted for the extra point with a run around left end.

Except for a safety scored by Chaffey when Bob Brand was caught behind his own goal line while attempting a forward pass, Upland maintained supremacy with its passing and running attack throughout the game.

Chaffey's attempts to gain yardage through the air were stopped twice by Harold Cook, center, when he intercepted for the Upland team.

The local eleven, coached by Edwin Dean, showed surprising form in the first game of the season, and Coach Dean states that this year's team is one of the best balanced squads that he has coached during the 10 years he has been at Upland junior high school. A four-game schedule will be played with the Chaffey frosh, the next game coming on Nov. 9 at Chaffey.

LIGHTS OUT FOR CITY IN DIMOUT

plies to them as to all other outdoor lights. They are required to be properly shielded.

"IF IN DOUBT—"

Safest procedure always if anyone has any doubt as to whether a light complies with dimout regulations is to leave the light out, or if indoors, to pull all shades all the way down, it is recommended by Chief Mueller. In such cases the police always will be glad to inspect the condition.

Following several recent evening surveys of Upland, Richard W. Derby, chief air raid warden, reports several common lighting conditions which would constitute a violation which need remedying. In most cases, he said, the condition would constitute a violation. However, he said he believed that in most cases where such conditions occurred, people thought they were complying with dimout requirements.

BEWARE TRANSLUCENT CURTAINS

One of the most common, he said, is the presence of bright floor or table lamps immediately behind thin, light colored shades or curtains. He indicated that heavier shades or curtains be installed or that the lamps be moved to one side so as not to shine directly out of the window.

WATCH SMALL POINTS

Another common error, he pointed out, is the presence of lights back in another room or hallway in a home which shine directly outdoors, even though shades in the outside room may be properly adjusted for the lights in that room. Shades should be drawn to a point below any light source which may be in another room in a house.

Small windows on doors or at the sides of doors should be properly curtained, he cautioned, as many of these are in violation of dimout with respect to lights within homes. Some residents, he said, have counted on porch vines to afford proper concealment, but these should be checked carefully.

ARMY WILL BE STRICT

Dimout, Chief Mueller declared, is not a matter to be settled by guess or personal whim. This area is in a combat zone and the army means business, he said, pointing out that local authorities are responsible to the army for dimout enforcement.

If dimout compliance is not observed, the army will crack down, and violators face a fine or imprisonment, or both, or they may be expelled from this area to some point east of the Mississippi river. According to a recent communication from the Western Defense Command, there will be no excuses for violations. In recent days, numerous violators have been arrested in the metropolitan area, it is stated by Mr. Medley.

There has grown up in this country a race of girls, as shown in the photos with Stillson wrenches, acetylene torches, etc., who can unscrew their own Mason jars.

PRIVATE HARGROVE LEARNS ARMY LIFE

BY MRS. GEO. W. WEST
Assistant Librarian

"See Here, Private Hargrove," by Marion Hargrove.

To the mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, sweethearts, etc., of the men in the United States Army of America, greetings! And in addition—a bit of advance information. Quote: When Junior comes home from camp on furlough or for the week end, he will probably throw out his chest, pull his shoulders almost out of joint, and speak a sort of jargon entirely unintelligible to you. There is no cause for alarm; Junior is merely exaggerating to show off his familiarity with military life. You will not be consoled by this knowledge when he begins to speak this unknown tongue. In order to understand some of his conservation, you might (two words deleted by Upland public library) this page and tuck it away in the drawer with your recipes and patterns.—Unquote.

Thus Private Marion Hargrove, A S N 34116620, late "feature editor, the obituary editor, the woman's page editor, the hospital editor, the rewrite man, the commissar for paste and copy paper and Coca-Colas, the guest artist for ailing columnists, the tourist guide for visiting school children, the butt of office jokes of the CHARLOTTE 'NEWS'," regales the families of young selectees with his mirth-provoking account of one private's induction and subsequent toughening from civilian to soldier period paragraph.

For a lively account of life as it is being lived in camp or post from California to Maine, from Florida to Washington, here is the best interpretation to come from "one who knows". Even if First Sergeant Clarence A. Goldsmith, on reading this volume, roars: "Look who's learning who how to do what!" the countless readers who will laugh their way through its pages, will close the cover with a deep conviction that this army is being molded into the most modern and efficient fighting force we have ever put into the field.

But most amazing of all to relate, Private Marion Hargrove is no more! It is Corporal Hargrove, thank you.

TELEPHONE "TRAFFIC JAMS"

Place Out-of-Town Calls
Between Noon and 6 p. m. or after 9 p. m.

Existing national conditions have brought about a great increase in telephone use for city-to-city communication.

Because available telephone facilities ★ are not always adequate to handle this increased volume, completion of inter-city calls is frequently delayed. This is especially so during the busier hours of the day—the periods between 9 a.m. and 12 noon and from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

To avoid the inconvenience of such delays when you telephone out-of-town friends, we suggest that you place calls to points more than 50 miles distant at the hours indicated above — between noon and 6 o'clock in the afternoon or after 9 o'clock in the evening.

These are the hours when telephone "traffic jams" are less likely to occur and we can, therefore, provide more rapid service.

★ Under normal conditions, additional telephone lines and added equipment could be installed to take care of this increased business. However, due to the vital need of our fighting forces for telephone equipment coupled with shortages of essential materials, additional facilities are not now obtainable for civilian use.

Place out-of-town calls during periods indicated in WHITE. Avoid making long distance calls during the hours shown in BLACK.

The universal dimout ordinance proposed by army authorities, which was given its first reading at the last council meeting, was presented for second reading last night, after which it was approved by the council, to become effective upon publication.

Prospective property for use as a rubbish disposal dump was discussed by the council, and Mr. Manley reported one offer. However, the council deemed it best to defer action and to continue the search for a more convenient and more suitable site. Mr. Manley was instructed to report the matter at the next meeting.

A delegation representing the Lutheran church of Ontario appeared before the council to request permission to place attractive church signs on Foothill boulevard. The request was approved, subject to permission of property owners and state highway requirements. Rev. C. F. Pohlman, Warren Wilken and Mr. Gahrre represented the church.

With regard to the condition of trees in the 500 block on Eighth avenue, which was brought before the board at its last meeting by Bert Hendy, the council recommended that authority to act be delegated to Mr. Manley.

The appointment of I. J. Linkey to serve as a member of the police and fire departments was confirmed by the council.
